MAY END NIGHT RIDING.

The big deal between the American Tobacco Company and Barley Tobacco Society for the 1906 and part of the 1907 crops of tobacco, which has been hanging fire for several weeks, was closed at Louisville, Ky., late yesterday. The price agreed on in the transaction, said to be the largest of its kind ever put through, is an average of 20 cents for the 1906 crop and 17 cents per pound for the 1907 product.

The deal involves nearly 80,000,000 pounds of tobacco held in the pool by the Barley Tobacco Society and an outlay of something like $14,000,000 on the part of the American Tobacco Company.

The tobacco which was sold included the larger part of the holdings of the Barley Tobacco Growers' Association, formed several years ago, which pooled its crops in 1906 and 1907. There was no crop raised by the members of the association in 1908, though a number of independents raised crops in central Kentucky under guard.

The sale of the pooled crop, it is believed, will mark the end of night riding in central and eastern Kentucky, as it is thought with these crops out of the way practically all the growers will raise tobacco next year. The sale has nothing to do with the crops in the "dark" district or western portion of Kentucky and northern Tennessee.

KILLED BY FELLOW INMATE

George Mason, 74 years old, an inmate of the Home for the Aged, at Blue Plains, D. C., yesterday afternoon shot and killed Martin McCrossin, 64 years old, another inmate of the same institution. McCrossin fell to the floor unconscious after the shot had been fired, and was hurried to the Washington Asylum Hospital, but he was beyond medical relief and died at 7:50 o'clock last night.

Mason was locked up at the Washington police station, charged with murder. He says the shooting was accidental. Edward Gant, 78 years old, the only witness to the killing, says Mason drew a revolver from a hip pocket, and, taking deliberate aim, fired.

Several statements have been made as to the motive, but little credence is placed in any of these by the police.

The two old men had been friends for seven years, having entered the institution about the same time. McCrossin was formerly a Montgomery county, Md. farmer, but circumstances had forced him to enter the almshouse where he first met Mason.

Mason was formerly a prosperous patent attorney of Washington. It is said that at one time he handled a number of celebrated cases.

MR. ROOKEFELLER.

Mr. John D. Rockefeller was in the witness chair for the second day in New York yesterday in the government suit to dissolve the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Direct examination of Mr. Rockefeller was completed and cross examination will begin today.

He told how refineries were brought together and price of oil advanced; how the Standard built up an export trade and opened business with the Orient; how it had a disagreement with Tom Scott and ceased to send oil over the Pennsylvania Railroad and how it finally made a hauling contract with different railroads to carry the oil. His advice was to keep out of debt and be careful what you eat.

SPARKS FLEW FROM TEETH

Belleville, Ill., Nov. 20.—Henry Werner, on trial for assault, testified yesterday that sparks which flew from his teeth when a bear steak struck him in the mouth enabled him to recognize Joseph Karlin in the darkness as the man who had hurled the steak. The meritment which this statement aroused was repeated when Max Henschel told what started the trouble.

"Henry and I were passing the saloon," he said, "when these fellows called out to me. I went in and one of them asked me what the German word for jimson weed was. I told him it was steckafel. They would not have it that way and started throwing steins."

ASFOR DAUGHTERS GET BULK

By the will of Mrs. William Astor, probated in New York Wednesday most of her estate goes to her daughters, Mrs. Charlotte A. Haig and Mrs. Caroline S. Wilson. To her son, John Jacob Astor, are bequeathed some family heirlooms and jewelry, the will stating that his not sharing more largely in the estate is because of the ample provision made for him by his father, and not because of any lack of affection. The Astor family Destitute Blind receives $5,000, and a butler the same amount. The estate is to revert to William Vincent Astor, her grandson and son of John Jacob Astor if there are no descendants of her daughters.

INJURED IN INITIATION.

Gov. elect A. C. Shallenberger, of Nebraska, is confined to his room and is suffering from a fractured leg. He was injured while being initiated into the order of Shriners Wednesday night. Rev. Garland Biggan, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Louisa, Va., was injured Wednesday night while being initiated into the Masonic order. His shoulder was dislocated and one arm broken. His injury, while of a serious nature, will not result fatally.
